Glen Lanham was introduced as Duke wrestling head coach April 16, 2012 and has made major strides in each of his seasons at the helm. The Blue Devils have finished higher at the NCAA Championships each of the past five seasons than in all of the previous years prior to coming under Lanham's leadership. It all culminated with top-25 finish in 2018, taking 22nd overall and crowning another All-American, the fifth in six seasons.

The 2017-18 season finished with a bang as Duke finished in the top 25 for the first time in program history. In addition, the Blue Devils made NCAA history as the four Finesilver brothers earned bids in the NCAA Championships, marking the first time in history four brothers have qualified in the same year. Jacob Kasper took home his second All-America award with a fourth-place showing, while Mitch Finesilver missed a podium spot by one match.

Kasper also won his first ACC title at heavyweight and Mitch and Zach Finesilver took runner-up at 157 and 165, respectively. As a team, Duke finished 7-7 overall and upended Virginia in ACC dual action. The Blue Devils took fourth at the ACC Championships.

Lanham's continued to add to All-Americans to the wall in 2016-17 as Kasper achieved All-America status with a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Championships. He became the second wrestler under Lanham to earn the honor and the fourth All-America award won under Lanham's watch.

In addition to Kasper, Jake Faust and Connor Bass advanced to the NCAA Championships, marking the third straight season Duke has landed at least three wrestlers at the postseason event and the fifth straight year multiple Blue Devils qualified. Prior to the 2015-16 season, Duke had never sent more than two wrestlers to the NCAA Championships in consecutive seasons.

Duke also did well in the classroom in 2016-17 with four wrestlers earning NWCA All-Academic honors and the Blue Devils posting the 17th-best team GPA among Division I teams. Duke was the lone ACC team represented in the top 30.

Lanham made history in 2016 as Conner Hartmann, under Lanham's mentoring, became Duke's first three-time All-American. Also the first Duke wrestler to be a four-time NCAA qualifier, Hartmann finished seventh at the NCAA Championships at 197 pounds.

Overall, four Blue Devils qualified for the NCAA Championships, marking the second consecutive season and the first time in program history the Blue Devils have landed at least four wrestlers in the field. Duke previously had never sent more than two wrestlers to the NCAA postseason event in consecutive years. In addition, Mitch Finesilver was one shy of landing on the podium for the Blue Devils - the farthest two Duke wrestlers have advanced at NAAs in program history.

On the team side of the results, Duke grabbed a pair of top 25 wins with victories over rival No. 13 North Carolina and No. 23 Purdue. The triumph over the Tar Heels was the highest ranked win in program history and was the first victory over UNC since 2004. Duke upset the Boilermakers 28-18 to earn its third Big Ten win in program history and the second ranked win of the year.

Lanham's third season was arguably his best as the Blue Devils landed a program-best five wrestlers in the NCAA Championships and posted its highest finish at 28th. Marcus Cain, Mitch Finesilver, Hartmann, Kasper and Immanuel Kerr-Brown all earned bids to the NCAA field, while Hartmann led the charge with his second All-American performance and sixth-place finish. Overall, three Blue Devils advanced to the second day of competition for the first time in program history.

In conference action, Lanham led the Blue Devils to a fourth-place showing at the ACC Championships, the highest finish since taking third in 2004. Duke defeated a pair of Big Ten opponents for the first time in program history en route to an 11-5 overall record.

In addition to his All-America performance, Hartmann took home the ACC title at 197 pounds, while Kasper and Finesilver both garnered All-ACC honors.

Off the mat, Duke ranked sixth nationally in team GPA and had four wrestlers earn NWCA All-Academic honors. The Blue Devils were tops in the ACC in GPA for a second straight year.

In just his second season, Lanham landed a Duke wrestler on the podium at NCAA Championships for the third time in the program's history. Hartmann, in his second consecutive appearance at NCAAs, turned in a pair of upsets en route to becoming Duke's second All-American wrestler with a fifth-place showing at 197 pounds.

In addition, for the first time in program history, Duke had two wrestlers - Immanuel Kerr-Brown joined Hartmann - who advanced to the second day of wrestling at the NCAA Championships.

Kerr-Brown's improvement under Lanham shined through in the 2014-15 season. The Rome, Ga., native posted a career-high 26 wins, five shy of his previous two seasons combined, and took third at ACC Championships.

As a team, Duke had its highest finish at NCAA Championships in program history with a 29th-place showing. Overall, Duke finished the year 6-15 after wrestling its toughest schedule in school history.

The Duke wrestling program made strides in Lanham's first season at the helm. The Blue Devils finished the year 9-10-0 and 1-4 in the ACC. The nine wins were the most since the 2008-09 campaign as Duke sent two wrestlers - Brandon Gambucci and Hartmann - to the NCAA Championships. It marked the first time since 2009 as well that multiple Blue Devils competed in the NCAA postseason event.

On the mat, Gambucci earned All-ACC honors at 133 pounds to earn an automatic berth in the NCAA Championships. Hartmann finished third at 197 pounds, despite missing the previous month due to an injury, and garnered an at-large invitation to the postseason.

Overall, Duke placed four wrestlers among the top four in the ACC Championships and had seven different wrestlers place in the various tournaments over the course of the year.

Duke was equally as successful in the classroom in Lanham's first season. The Blue Devils landed six wrestlers on the All-ACC Academic Team, while Gambucci and Hartmann earned NWCA All-Academic recognition and the Duke team ranked fifth overall with a team GPA of 3.15.

The Blue Devils also were active in the community, helping handicapped kids learn baseball, visiting local hospitals, and cooking breakfast at the Durham Urban Ministries.

Prior to taking over the head coaching position, Lanham served as an assistant coach with the Blue Devils for two seasons. Lanham helped mentor Diego Bencomo and Tanner Hough to NCAA Championship berths in 2011 and 2012, respectively. Under Lanham's tutelage in the wrestling room, Bencomo earned 2011 All-ACC recognition after taking runner-up honors at the ACC Championships at 184 pounds. The Phoenix, Ariz., native went on to register a pair of wins in the NCAA Tournament, becoming just the second wrestler in Duke history to make it to the quarterfinal round.

With the help of Lanham in 2012, Hough became the second Duke true freshman to earn a bid to the NCAA Championships after taking fourth at the ACC Championships at 141 pounds. Hough finished his rookie campaign with a 23-13 overall record.

Lanham joined the Duke coaching staff as an assistant in June of 2010 after stints as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State, North Carolina and Purdue. Prior to arriving in Durham, he spent three seasons at Purdue where he spearheaded the Boilermakers' recruiting efforts.

At Purdue, Lanham had an immediate impact on the program, helping several Boilermakers to breakout seasons. He mentored a selection of student-athletes to the NCAA Championships during his three seasons and under his watch Luke Manuel earned three bids to the NCAA postseason and climbed to as high as fifth nationally at 174 pounds.

The Boilermakers' two recruiting classes under Lanham garnered a wealth of national honors, including the nation's No. 12 class from InterMat.com in 2008. It marked the second straight top-20 national recruiting class for the Boilermakers as they reeled in three of the nation's top-100 recruits, including a pair of 2009 USA Wrestling Junior national champions.

Prior to his three years at Purdue, the former Oklahoma State competitor coached at the University of North Carolina for four years. With the Tar Heels, Lanham also worked closely with the middle to upper weight classes and headed their recruiting efforts.

In his time in Chapel Hill, Lanham tutored four ACC Champions and nine NCAA Championships qualifiers. He also went to great lengths to improve the Tar Heels' program, bringing in an InterMat Wrestling

Top-25 recruiting class in 2006-07.

Lanham worked as a high school teacher and wrestling coach in Oklahoma from 1991-2003. He was at Midwest City High School for seven years, where he mentored several state champions and sent them on to prestigious college programs. While at Midwest City, he also volunteered his time at Oklahoma University, coaching several All-Americans.

Lanham served as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State University from 1988-1991, helping the Cowboys to a pair of NCAA Championships. As a college competitor, he garnered All-American honors at both OSU and the University of Tennessee, where he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in human service with an emphasis in juvenile counseling in August of 1988. He competed internationally as a member of the Sunkist Kids team and was freestyle wrestling All-American.

Lanham resides in Pittsboro, N.C., with his wife Melanie.

BRANDON NELSEN

Assistant Coach • 3rd Season • Purdue '15
Two-time NCAA Qualifier

Brandon Nelsen enters his third year as an assistant coach for the Blue Devils in 2018-19. Nelsen works primarily with the lighter weights in the wrestling room and is crucial in recruiting efforts.

After a strong first season on staff, Nelsen jumped another level in helping the Blue Devils put five in the NCAA Championships, including the Finesilver quartet who he worked with very closely. With Nelsen training with them almost daily, Mitch and Zach Finesilver took home runner-up honors at the ACC Championships, while Josh Finesilver earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Championships as a rookie. Mitch went on to miss a podium spot at the NCAA Championships by one match. A good mentor for the student-athletes, Nelsen also is instrumental in Duke's success in the classroom as three Blue Devils earned NWCA All-Academic honors.

In his inaugural season on the staff, Nelsen helped Duke land three in the NCAA Championships, including Jake Faust (165) and Connor Bass (174) who he worked with more closely. Nelsen also was instrumental in bringing in the largest and arguably the most talented rookie class in recent memory after his first year as the recruiting coordinator.

Nelsen came to Durham after spending a year as graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis. During his time in Indianapolis Nelsen worked primarily with the lightweight group. He was instrumental in mentoring a pair of All-Americans at 125 and 133 pounds, which included a runner-up finish at NCAA Division II Championships at 133 pounds.

Off the mat, his wrestlers at Indianapolis were equally as successful, earning all-academic team honors nationally. The team finished 10th nationally in the NWCA academic rankings with a team GPA of 3.252.

Nelsen is a two-time NCAA qualifier for Purdue. He finished his career with an 84-55 record and is a three-time Big Ten placer. Nelsen competed at 141 and 149 pounds during his career.

Nelsen completed his career with the Boilermakers ranked fourth on Purdue's reversals list with 45. He also graduated sixth in career falls (30) and 17th in career back points with 124. In addition, Nelsen also has experience in international styles of wrestling, placing fourth at the University Freestyle Nationals.

In addition to being a wrestler for the Boilermakers, Nelsen served as a social media coordinator and was responsible for the creation of social media campaigns on both Twitter and Facebook for a student public relations group. He also was a member of the Boilermaker Athletic Council, which helped foster positive interaction among student-athletes with a particular focus on leadership.

In his first two years at Purdue, Nelsen also was a part of the emerging leaders program. He joined with other underclassmen as they all pursued leadership positions within their sports and on campus overall.

A native of Indianapolis, Indiana, Nelsen earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Law and Society from Purdue University in 2015. Nelsen resides his wife Lindsey reside in Durham.

JACOB KASPER

Assistant Coach • 1st Season • Duke '18
Two-time All-American
Three-time NCAA qualifier
2018 ACC Champion

Former Blue Devil standout Jacob Kasper joined the Duke wrestling coaching staff in the fall of 2018. Kasper will serve as an assistant coach and will work closely with the upper weights as well recruiting for the program.

A two-time All-American at heavyweight and the Duke single-season wins record holder, Kasper joins the staff after one of the most decorated careers in Blue Devil wrestling history. The Ohio native graduated in May after finishing a career-best fourth at the NCAA Championships to earn his second consecutive All-America honor.

"To say I am excited to be coaching my former teammates as well as the freshmen would be an understatement," said Kasper. "I owe so much of who I am to the Duke wrestling team and staff and I hope I can impart many of those lessons I learned to the current team. I truly believe Duke wrestling is on the cusp of a huge breakthrough and will have more record-breaking moments this year and every year after and I'm thrilled to be a small piece of it."

A native of Lexington, Ohio, Kasper competed at 184 pounds his first two seasons, qualifying for the NCAA Championships as a sophomore. With one year of starting under his belt, Kasper took home runner-up honors at the ACC Championships in his second season and finished with a 24-12 overall record.

After taking a redshirt season in 2015-16, Kasper worked tirelessly on putting on weight to bump up to heavyweight where he excelled. His work ethic and will to succeed was unmatched as he marched his way onto the national wrestling scene in January 2017 when he became the first wrestler in Duke history to win the Southern Scuffle title, which he would do again in 2018.

As a redshirt junior, Kasper posted a 30-6 overall record and earned his first All-America award with a sixth-place showing at the NCAA Championships. Five of his six losses came against top 20 foes as he became one of 13 Blue Devils in program history to amass 30 wins in a season.

The two-year captain saved his best year for last, repeating as Southern Scuffle Champion, winning his first ACC title and taking fourth at the NCAA Championships just miles from his hometown in Ohio. Along the way, he eclipsed the Duke single-season wins mark with a 38-4 overall record. For his career, Kasper posted a 107-38 overall record and is the lone Duke wrestler to win a Southern Scuffle crown.

Kasper resides in Durham and also will remain a member of the Wolfpack RTC where he trains with some of the best wrestlers in the country.

DEVIN DEMYANOVICH

Athletic Trainer

Devin Demyanovich joined the Duke staff in August of 2011 and serves as an assistant athletic trainer. She works primarily with the wrestling and fencing teams.

A native of Coaldale, Penn., Demyanovich joins the Duke staff after serving the past two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at UNC-Greensboro with its wrestling program while pursuing her master's degree in applied neuromechanics.

She is a 2009 graduate of The Pennsylvania State University with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology - athletic training where she also served as a student athletic trainer.

ALEX MERRILL

Sports Performance Coach

Alex Merrill joined the Duke Sports Performance staff in September of 2010. Merrill oversees program design and implementation for men's and women's golf, wrestling and women's tennis.

Before joining Duke, Merrill was the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at Attain Sports Performance, a private training facility in Western Massachusetts.

Merrill holds a Bachelor's degree from Keene State College in Physical Education and a Master's degree from Springfield College in Applied Exercise Science. He is a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist through the National Strength & Conditioning Association.
