ACC Tournament Building History

In the past 40 years of the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament, there have been nine different sites. The inaugural tournament was held in 1978 at University Hall on the campus of the University of Virginia in Charlottesville. The Tournament then moved to Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh, N.C., in 1979, hosted by North Carolina State University. The University of Maryland's Cole Field House in College Park was the site of the 1980 Tournament, while Clemson University's Littlejohn Coliseum, was home to the 1981 event. It returned to Reynolds Coliseum in 1982.

The Conference Tournament remained in North Carolina from 1983 to 1991, hosted by Fayetteville's Cumberland County Memorial Arena. The Tournament then moved to Winthrop Coliseum in Rock Hill, S.C., for a four-year span (1992-96), until the 1997 Tournament moved to Independence Arena in Charlotte, N.C., which hosted the event for three years. For 16 consecutive years, the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament was held in the Greensboro Coliseum prior to moving to Conway, S.C., for the 2017 tournament. It returned to Greensboro in 2018.

RSN Includes

The ACC's Regional Sports Networks for the 2018-19 season is comprised of FOX Sports South, FOX Sports Florida, FOX Sports Sun, FOX Sports Midwest, FOX Sports Indiana, NESN, YES Network, AT&T SPORTSNET Pittsburgh and NBC Sports Washington. Haley Gorecki

6-0 ■ R-Junior ■ G ■ #2

Palatine, Ill.

(William Fremd)

One of four captains in 2018-19 ... All-America candidate ... combo guard who can play any of the guard spots ... will go off the bounce for the mid-range shot ... hits the three-pointer with ease ... will put the ball on the floor and get to the rack ... a very tough competitor ... injured midseason in both the 2015-16 and 2017-18 campaigns with hip injuries.

As a Redshirt Sophomore (2017-18):

Burst on the national scene as a redshirt sophomore, prior to getting injured ... moved into the starting lineup on Dec. 10 against Winthrop and posted a then career-high 20 points, as she hit 5-of-7 treys and 7-of-11 field goals ... went on to score double-digits in seven straight starts ... this included 20+ points in four of those seven games ... averaged 17.1 points, 5.5 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 1.8 steals over a span of 11 contests ... collected a career-high 29 points at North Carolina as she drained 7-of-15 three-pointers, grabbed nine rebounds and dished six assists ... added 28 points at Virginia Tech on 7-of-10 three-pointers and 9-of-14 field goals ... became the first Blue Devil to notch seven or more three-pointers in back-to-back games ... suffered a hip injury at the end of January and was limited in her final three games, before being sidelined the remainder of the year ... drained 37 three-pointers in a span of 12 games ... for the season, averaged 11.0 points, 3.9 rebounds, 2.9 assists and 1.3 steals ... hit 42.3 percent from downtown and hit 44 treys on the year ... hit 8-of-8 field goals and had 19 first half points at third-ranked Louisville ... went on to finish with a then career-high 25 points, six assists, five rebounds and a career-high two blocked shots ... notched her first collegiate double-double against Maine with 13 points and 10 rebounds ... nearly missed two straight double-doubles in the next game against Wyoming with 14 points and nine rebounds ... hit five or more three-pointers in four different games.

As a Sophomore (2016-17):

Redshirted the season due to injuries.

As a Freshman (2015-16):

Joanne P. McCallie

Head Coach

12th Season at Duke

27th Year as a Head Coach

Northwestern, '87 ■ Auburn, '90

The ACC Coach of the Year in 2010, 2012 and 2013, head coach Joanne P. McCallie enters her 12th season at the helm of the Blue Devils' program.

In just 11 years, Coach P has guided the program to a 302-80 overall record, a 132-38 mark in ACC action and 10 NCAA Tournament selections, including a No. 1 seed in 2009 and four straight Elite Eight appearances from 2010-13. She led Duke to four consecutive ACC regular season titles in 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 and three ACC Championships in 2010, 2011 and 2013.

On the recruiting trail, McCallie brought in back-to-back No. 1 classes in 2010 and 2011, as well as the No. 1 class in 2015. She secured the No. 2 classes in 2013 and 2014. Duke has also signed 15 different players who have played in the McDonald's All-America game, including nine over the last eight years.

McCallie reached another milestone this past season becoming the 15th fastest coach in NCAA history to reach the 600-win mark in 2017-18, doing it in only 821 contests.

Coming off totaling a 24-9 record a year ago and a trip to the NCAA regional in Albany, N.Y., Duke is primed for another successful season with the return of Leaonna Odom, Haley Gorecki, Kyra Lambert along with others.

Duke featured yet another WNBA first round selection in 2018 as three-time All-America Lexie Brown was taken No. 9 overall by the Connecticut Sun, while Rebecca Greenwell was picked in the third round by the Washington Mystics.

After dealing with more injuries in 2015-16 and missing out on the NCAA Tournament, the Blue Devils responded with a 28-6 overall record in 2016-17 and hosted the NCAA Tournament first and second rounds. During a first round win against Hampton, Duke lost the services of starting point guard Kyra Lambert and then lost in the second round to a surging Oregon squad.

In 2014-15, injuries once again bit Duke as the team lost two Blue Devils to season-ending injuries -- Oderah Chidom and Lyneé Belton -- along with one transfer that left Duke with a limited roster. McCallie and the Blue Devils still managed to advance to the NCAA Sweet 16, while posting a 23-11 overall and 11-5 mark in the ACC. Elizabeth Williams was named the WBCA National Defensive Player of the Year and became the first Duke four-time Associated Press All-America. She went on to be the No. 4 overall selection in the WNBA Draft to the Connecticut Sun.

McCallie and the Blue Devils registered a 28-7 overall and 12-4 league mark in 2013-14, but were dealt with two devastating injuries to All-America point guards Chelsea Gray and Alexis Jones. The Blue Devils rebounded to advance to the ACC Championship game before falling in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Elizabeth Williams earned ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors for the third straight year.

In the WNBA Draft, both Gray and Tricia Liston were selected in the first round by the Connecticut Sun and Minnesota Lynx, respectively.

During the season, McCallie reached the 500-win mark, joining a group of 29 other active coaches to reach the milestone.

In one of her best coaching jobs since arriving at Duke, Coach P led the Blue Devils to a 33-3 overall and 17-1 league mark in 2012-13. This all came after losing All-America point guard Chelsea Gray for the season on Feb. 17 against Wake Forest. Duke went on to win the ACC regular season title with an ACC-record 17-1 mark and claimed its eighth overall ACC Championship. The Blue Devils advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight before falling to top-seeded Notre Dame.

Gray went on to be named WBCA All-America, while Williams earned Associated Press All-America honors as well. Williams also secured ACC Defensive Player of the Year accolades for the second straight year. Rookie Alexis Jones stepped up once Gray went down with the injury and earned ACC Tournament MVP honors.

During the season, McCallie topped the 150-win mark at Duke, reaching the milestone in the third-quickest amount of games in Division I history (182). She was also the fastest female coach in history to reach 150 wins at an institution.

McCallie guided Duke to a 27-6 overall and 15-1 league mark in 2011-12, in a season that featured the loss of starters Richa Jackson and Chloe Wells as well as highly-ranked freshman Amber Henson. For the Blue Devils to win the ACC regular season title outright for the first time since the 2006-07 campaign, advance to the NCAA Elite Eight and net 15 league wins was one of her best coaching jobs in her 20 years. Williams earned National Freshman of the Year and All-America accolades, while Gray was an All-America selection as well.

Duke also led the ACC in attendance with a 5,361 per game average in 2011-12.

In 2010-11, McCallie and the Blue Devils netted a 32-4 overall record, marking her second straight 30-win season at the helm at Duke. The Blue Devils posted 10 victories against ranked opponents, including victories against eventual national champion Texas A&M, fourth-ranked Xavier, 10th-ranked Kentucky and 10th-ranked DePaul. Senior Jasmine Thomas earned second team All-America and ACC Tournament MVP honors for the second consecutive year.

McCallie led the Blue Devils to a 17-0 mark at home in Cameron Indoor Stadium, which was just the third undefeated campaign at home in Duke's school history and the second under Coach P. The 17 wins was also a Blue Devil single-season record.

Duke boasted three student-athletes drafted in the WNBA Draft as Thomas was selected 12th overall to Seattle, while Karima Christmas was the 23rd pick by Washington and Krystal Thomas was the 36th selection by the Seattle Storm.

In 2009-10, McCallie led Duke to both the ACC regular season and ACC Tournament titles, while advancing to the NCAA Elite Eight. Along the way, she also became the first coach in Division I history to be crowned champion in four different conferences, as well as the first coach in NCAA history to garner coach of the year accolades in four different leagues.

During her third season at Duke, Coach P guided the Blue Devils to a 30-6 overall record, both the ACC regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Regional final. The 30-win season for Duke was the eighth over the last 10 years, as McCallie became just the second Division I coach to lead two different programs to 30-win campaigns.

The Blue Devils knocked off eight ranked teams under Coach P's guidance in 2009-10, while junior Jasmine Thomas earned All-America honors and was a finalist for National Player of the Year. Senior Joy Cheek became the 14th player drafted in Duke's history as she was taken with the 35th overall selection by the Indiana Fever.

During McCallie's first three years, she registered 82 victories marking the second-most wins by a head coach in the first three years at a school.

In 2008-09, McCallie led Duke to its 11th straight 25-win season, an appearance in the ACC Tournament Championship game as well as a No. 1 seed in the 2009 NCAA Tournament. Under Coach P's direction, the Blue Devils compiled a 14-0 record in Cameron Indoor Stadium, marking only the second time in school history the program has gone undefeated at home.

Duke collected wins over eight nationally ranked opponents including Stanford, Tennessee, North Carolina, Maryland and Florida State. The Blue Devils' undefeated home record was supported by an average of 6,655 fans, the second-highest average in school history, and Duke ended the season ranked No. 11 nationally in average attendance. The program continued its streak of NCAA Tournament appearances in 2008-09 under McCallie as Duke was selected to the "Big Dance" for the 15th consecutive time and the seventh time in school history as a No. 1 seed. McCallie coached seniors Chante Black and Abby Waner, who were selected in the WNBA Draft, becoming the 12th and 13th players drafted in Blue Devil history. Black and Waner were selected No. 10 and No. 21, respectively, in the WNBA Draft in April by the Connecticut Sun and New York Liberty.

In her first season with the Blue Devils in 2007-08, McCallie led Duke to its 10th straight 25-win season with an appearance in the ACC Championship game and a trip to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in Oklahoma City, Okla., which marked the 11th consecutive appearance in the regional semifinals for the program. The NCAA Tournament appearance was its 14th straight and 15th overall tournament bid for the Blue Devils.

McCallie coached Duke's 11th player drafted to the WNBA as Wanisha Smith was selected in the second round (27th overall) by the New York Liberty. Duke also saw a rise in attendance in McCallie's first season. The Blue Devils ranked No. 10 nationally in attendance, while averaging a school-record 6,755 fans in 13 home contests.

McCallie has made her presence felt in the Durham and neighboring communities, as well as on campus. She has been the keynote speaker for the Durham Sports Club, Polka Dot Mama Melanoma Foundation, Durham Chamber of Commerce - Professional Women's Network, the Duke Club of Washington, D.C., Special Olympics, N.C. High School Coaches Association, Hospice, the Hays Barton United Methodist Church and the Raleigh Sports Club. She participated in a panel discussion on campus for Women at Duke. She has also participated in the Duke Children's Hospital Radiothon as well as being a spokeswoman for Duke Women's Health. A huge advocate for youth development, McCallie and the Duke women's basketball team have developed a relationship with a local non-profit organization, The Emily K Center, by participating in after school leadership programs. In addition, Duke hosted the 2010 and 2013 Jimmy V Women's Basketball Classic as part of Jimmy V Week, an initiative that benefits the V Foundation for Cancer Research. McCallie's four-year term on the WBCA Board of Directors concluded in August of 2015.

In addition to being the national chairperson for the Duke Cancer Fund, Coach P and the Blue Devils have community partnerships in the surrounding area they help with each year -- Duke Cancer Institute, The Ronald McDonald House, Duke Children's Hospital, Duke Women's Health, Melanoma Research Alliance and the Emily Krzyzewski Center -- while also participating in other activities to help the community.

Coach P created the "Choice Not Chance" kids club whose philosophy focuses on making the correct choices in life. The philosophy is widely used by McCallie, her staff and players, who are very active in the community speaking about "CNC." In its inaugural year the program received memberships of over 100 children who are entering the eighth grade or under.

Coach P added author to her already impressive resume in 2012 as she published the book "Choice Not Chance." Over her 26-year coaching career, McCallie has developed and refined the "Choice Not Chance" philosophy that focuses teaching her players and kids at large how to think and focus on making correct choices in life. Choice Not Chance highlights the lessons she has learned throughout her life such as "Going against the grain," "Never become satisfied," and "Enjoying the prospect of getting better daily."

With a foreword by Duke head men's basketball coach Mike Krzyzewski, the book has received acclaim from other public figures including Hall of Fame women's basketball coach Joe Ciampi, two U.S. Senators and Duke University Vice President and Director of Athletics Kevin White.

Another tradition introduced in McCallie's first season was the Coach P Radio Show, a first for the women's basketball program at Duke. The show is hosted by Chris Edwards on 620 AM The Bull, and performed live once a month during the season.

In October 2008, embracing McCallie's vision, the program launched its first True Blue Golf Classic. The Duke University Golf Club played host to 112 golfers, in an effort to raise money for the program. The classic continues to this day.

Coach P has an undying passion to develop people into winners. She is only one of four coaches who have taken three different programs to the NCAA Tournament. McCallie is also one of two coaches to guide her teams to a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament at two different schools. She has three National Championship game appearances in her career and has been named conference coach of the year five times. Coach P has coached 13 players who have received All-America honors. In her 26-year head coaching career, her teams have reached 20 wins 21 times.

Player development is a key component to Coach P's philosophy. During McCallie's career she has seen 14 of her former players go on to play professionally. Eight players have been first round WNBA Draft picks: Cindy Blodgett, Kristin Haynie, Elizabeth Shimek, Chante Black, Jasmine Thomas, Chelsea Gray, Tricia Liston, Elizabeth Williams and Lexie Brown. In the WNBA offseason, these players, as well as Oderah Chidom, Kendall Cooper, Haley Peters, Joy Cheek, Bridgette Mitchell, Kathleen Scheer, Shay Selby, Carrem Gay, Lindsay Bowen, Kelli Roehrig and Lorenda Haynes have enjoyed an overseas experience playing in countries such as Israel, Australia, Russia, Greece, France, Denmark along with others. Coach P does not only produce great professional players, she also prepares players to be great coaches. Katie Abrahamson-Henderson, a former assistant coach at Michigan State under McCallie, is currently the head coach at Central Florida. Three others are head coaches at the D-I level -- Felisha Legette-Jack (Buffalo), Darren Bennett (Skidmore) and Candice Jackson (College of Charleston).

With Team USA, McCallie coached the FIBA U-21 World Championship team in Moscow, Russia from June 29 - July 8, 2007, where she led the USA squad to an 8-0 record and won the gold medal. Her team of college stars, including former Blue Devil Abby Waner, captured nine USA Basketball U-21 records by registering a 30.0 point average margin of victory, scoring 93 points per game, netting the highest three-point percentage and field goals during the championship. Defensively, three players sit atop the blocked shots charts and four out of five of the top rebounders were members of this team. Over the summer of 2006, McCallie guided the USA Basketball U-20 team to a 5-0 record and a gold medal in the FIBA Americas Championships in Mexico City. The squad outscored its opponents by an average of 62 points per game and set 28 USA Basketball U-20 records in the event including most points averaged, highest field goal percentage and most field goals and three-pointers made. For her team's accomplishments, McCallie was named USA Basketball Developmental Coach of the Year.

Prior to coming to Duke, McCallie spent seven years at Michigan State University. While piloting the Spartans to a nationally elite level, McCallie, the 2005 Associated Press Coach of the Year, guided the Spartans to their first ever NCAA Final Four and national championship game appearance as well as their first ever NCAA Elite Eight and repeat Sweet Sixteen appearances, the programs' second Big Ten regular season title and first ever Big Ten Tournament Championship in 2005. Under McCallie, the program collected four consecutive 20-win seasons and an 81-23 record over her final three years in East Lansing. The Spartans also posted a school-record four straight appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

In 2005, Michigan State advanced to its first national championship game after earning the program's first No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. That record-setting team won 33 games (10 more than the previous record), won 14 Big Ten contests, shared just its second Big Ten regular-season championship, won its first Big Ten Tournament title, finished 13-0 at home, achieved a school-record 17-game win streak and beat 13 nationally-ranked teams. Over her seven-year stint in East Lansing, the Spartans also defeated 25 ranked opponents.

For her efforts, McCallie was named 2005 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, Basketball Times and Nike, as well as being voted Big Ten Coach of the Year by the league's media members. It marked the first time an MSU women's basketball coach was named national coach of the year and the second time a Spartan head coach earned the conference's coach of the year award. McCallie was also named the 2005 Basketball Coaches Association of Michigan College Coach of the Year.

Under McCallie, Michigan State saw its fan base increase dramatically as well, including a 78 percent rise since her arrival. The team set season attendance records in four out of her final five seasons, including a school-record average of 6,787 fans in 2005-06, which ranked 10th nationally. The Spartans were ranked second in attendance in the Big Ten and ninth nationally during McCallie's final season with an average of 6,646 fans a game. At the time of McCallie's departure from MSU, all of the Spartan top 15 single-game crowds in program history came during Coach P's tenure, including a school-record 14,066 against Ohio State in a nationally televised game on Feb. 20, 2005. Prior to her arrival at MSU, the

The McCallie Family

The McCallie family not only emphasizes education to the young women on the Duke team, but their own accomplishments further demonstrate their commitment to academics. Head coach Joanne P. McCallie holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Northwestern and a master's degree from Auburn in business administration.

John McCallie, Ph.D, Joanne's husband, is currently a professor at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. But it should come as no surprise that the McCallies are well-educated, as the name McCallie has long been synonymous with the word "education." The McCallie School is a college preparatory school for boys located on Missionary Ridge near Chattanooga, Tenn. It was founded in 1905 by Spencer Jarnagin McCallie and James Park McCallie, the grandfather and great-uncle, respectively, of John McCallie.

The McCallie School accepts young men with above average to exceptional academic abilities, and those students matriculate at some of the best colleges and universities in the nation. In recent years, the school has been recognized for its innovative educational programs and its overall standards of excellence. Recently, the Atlanta Journal/Constitution called McCallie "one of the leading secondary educational institutions in the United States."

In addition, John McCallie's great-aunt, Grace McCallie, was one of three founders of the Girls Preparatory School in 1906, also in Chattanooga. The school prepares girls for college through academic training, and instills in them high principles of honesty, integrity and consideration for others.

women's basketball program averaged only 1,506 fans per game in 1999-2000.

During her eight-year career at Maine, McCallie guided the Black Bears to seven straight 20-win campaigns, including a 20-11 overall record (in 1999-2000) and their sixth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. She was named coach of the year on three occasions, twice in the North Atlantic Conference (1995 and 1996) and once in the America East (1999). For her efforts, Maine honored her in 2009 with a banner as one of its top coaches in school history.

While at Maine, McCallie organized an event called "Realizing the Dream: Celebrating Women in Athletics" that featured speakers Dr. Donna Lopiano and Sheryl Swoopes. During the 1997-98 season, Dana Rae Warren filmed a documentary of the Maine women's basketball season. McCallie was inducted into the New England Basketball Hall of Fame in 2004. In October of 2005, she was inducted into the Maine Sports Legends Hall of Honor as well as the Maine Sports Hall of Fame in June of 2008 and the University of Maine Athletics Hall of Fame in October of 2009. Over the summer of 2014, McCallie was also inducted into the inaugural class of the Maine Basketball Hall of Fame.

Prior to becoming head coach at Maine in 1992-93, McCallie was an assistant coach at Auburn from 1988-92. As the team's primary recruiter, she helped sign the fourth-ranked class in the nation in 1990-91 and the 16th-ranked class in the nation in 1991-92. While at Auburn, McCallie and the Tigers appeared in two national championship games and made an appearance in the NCAA Elite Eight.

A native of Brunswick, Maine, McCallie owns a career mark of 613-228 during her 26-year stint as a head coach at Maine, Michigan State and Duke. As a coach and player, she has led her teams to 16 conference titles, 26 NCAA Tournament appearances, 12 NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, eight NCAA Elite Eight appearances, three NCAA Final Four appearances and three NCAA Championship game appearances.

The former Joanne Palombo played her collegiate basketball at Northwestern from 1984-87. She still ranks seventh in Wildcat history with 378 career assists. As a senior, she was an All-Big Ten honorable mention selection and helped lead the Wildcats to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. McCallie also was named Academic All-Big Ten First-Team as a senior.

What Does the P Stand For?

Those who have not known Joanne P. McCallie long may wonder why her players and those who know her well call her "Coach P." The "P" stands for Palombo, her maiden name. McCallie is proud of her Italian heritage, and early in her career found many similarities between herself and coaching legend Jim Valvano. She reasoned that if there could be a "Jimmy V", why not a "Joanne P?" Therefore, during her years as Joanne Palombo, she became known as "Coach P," and after her marriage to John McCallie, she decided to keep the "P" as a middle initial. But old habits die hard, so players, coaches, staff members and friends continue to refer to her simply as "Coach P."

McCallie graduated from Northwestern in 1987 with a degree in political science and earned a master's degree in business administration from Auburn in 1990.

The McCallie family includes husband John, daughter Madeline (Maddie - 23) and son John Wyatt (Jack - 17). Maddie played on the women's basketball teams at Elon and Miami (Ohio), before graduating from Elon in 2017. Jack started as a freshman at Northwestern in the fall of 2018.

The family resides in Durham, N.C.

Associate Head Coach

7th Season at Duke (Third as Assoc. Head Coach)

Regis University

Hernando Planells joined the Duke women's basketball program in 2012 and serves as an associate head coach for the Blue Devils.

Planells was promoted from director of relations to assistant coach over the summer of 2013 and then was elevated to associate head coach in the summer of 2016.

He coaches the post players and serves as one of two recruiting coordinators with Rene Haynes.

Since joining the coaching staff, Planells has made an immediate impact, landing the No. 1 class in 2015 with the signing of Angela Salvadores, Kyra Lambert, Crystal Primm, Haley Gorecki and Faith Suggs. He also helped land the No. 2 overall recruiting class in the nation in 2014 with the addition of McDonald's All-America selection Lyneé Belton, along with Erin Mathias and Azurá Stevens.

Planells has one of the most diverse backgrounds in basketball in both coaching and player development. He has coached at every level, including a stint with the Maine Red Claws from 2010-11 of the NBA Development League. As an assistant coach, he was in charge of player development, scouting and did on-court coaching. He helped develop Boston Celtics No. 1 draft pick Avery Bradley and NBA D-League Rookie of the Year DeShawn Sims. Planells has also spoken at coaching clinics and conducts player development camps all over the United States and in countries such as Japan, Philippines, Australia, Switzerland and Taiwan. In 2011, he founded ELITE athlete training, which specialized in personal training and consulting services for athletes. Through his work with ELITE, he trained and assisted over 100 athletes reach their goal of gaining a college scholarship or playing professionally.

From 2005-10, Planells served as a scout for Marty Blake, who is the Director of Scouting for the NBA. In his role as a scout, Planells put together scouting reports evaluating NBA prospects which were circulated to every NBA general manager and player personnel director.

In 2008, Planells returned to the United States after serving as head coach of the Ryukyu Golden Kings, an expansion team that is a part of the BJ League (Basketball Japan). For the 2006-07 season, he served as the head basketball coach for The Hollywood Fame, a team that participated in the American Basketball Association (ABA).

In 2005, Planells was named the first head coach of the Wyoming Golden Eagles out of the All-American Professional Basketball League. At that time, the 28-year-old was the youngest professional basketball coach in the country.

From 2003-05, Planells served as the assistant coach in charge of offense for Citrus College, one of the top community colleges in the state of California. Other coaching stops include a stint as the head varsity coach at Los Angeles High School (1998-2000), Immaculate Heart High School (1996-97) in Tucson, Ariz., and as an assistant at Monrovia High School (1995-96).

His work on the court led him to the "big screen" where he choreographed and consulted on the basketball scenes and training the actors in movies such as "Coach Carter", "The Longest Yard", "Rebound", "Spider-Man 3", "Semi-Pro" and others.

Planells' experience has also led him to work on commercials and print for EA Sports, WNBA, Target, Nissay Insurance (featuring Japanese Basketball superstar Yuta Tabuse) and Li Ning Shoes. He also trained the athletes of "Extreme Dodgeball", the highest rated show on the Game Show Network and has appeared on SPIKE TV's smash hit SLAMBALL as the head coach for the Bouncers.

Kevin M. White

Vice President & Director of Athletics

Adjunct Prof. of Business Administration

St. Joseph's College, 1972

Kevin M. White was named Duke University's vice president and director of athletics on May 31, 2008. He also serves as an adjunct professor of business administration at the university.

White, 67, arrived at Duke after leading Notre Dame's athletics program for eight years. In addition to previously holding AD positions at Arizona State University, Tulane University, the University of Maine and Loras College in Iowa, White has served in a number of prominent national leadership roles within intercollegiate athletics, including his service in 2006-07 as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and in 2005-06 as president of the Division I-AA Athletic Directors Association.

Always in demand as a visionary leader, White currently serves on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee and the United States Olympic Committee (USOC) Board of Directors. In July 2018, White was announced as the chair of the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee for 2019-20 (he will serve as vice chair in 2018-19). In October of 2017, White was selected to chair the newly formed USOC Collegiate Advisory Council (CAC) to guide and strengthen Olympic sport programming at the collegiate level. The 11-member council is charged with bridging the gap between high-contributing collegiate stakeholders and the Olympic Movement.

A testament to the tremendous respect he has garnered within the college athletics community, White has earned multiple high profile awards throughout his career. That impressive list includes the GeneralSports TURF Systems Division I-A Central Region Athletic Director of the Year (2006), the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision Under Armour AD of the Year Award presented by NACDA (one of four recipients in 2013), the National Football Foundation's John L. Toner award (2015), Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award (2015), Bobby Dodd AD of the Year (2015), and the Carl Maddox Sports Management Award (2015).

Guided by the Strategic Plan that was approved by Duke's Board of Trustees in April of 2008, White made an immediate – and lasting – impact on Duke Athletics. In addition to leading the department to unprecedented success in competition, he reshaped the organization into a more efficient department; strengthened ties to both campus and community constituents through consistent outreach efforts; successfully oversaw Duke Athletics' record-breaking fundraising efforts; streamlined and invested in staffing and forged partnerships with major corporate entities to enhance revenue streams to historically high levels; commissioned and executed a master facilities plan to position Duke well into the 21st Century; implemented significant diversity and inclusion efforts for Duke Athletics; and emphasized a stronger commitment to the university's intramural, club and recreational sports programs.

Since White's arrival, Duke has captured seven NCAA Championships – women's tennis in 2009, men's basketball in 2010 and 2015, men's lacrosse in 2010, 2013 and 2014, and women's golf in 2014 – and 22 ACC titles. On the strength of 16 teams participating in postseason competition and robust finishes in several sports, Duke ranked 11th in the 2018 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, which determine an institution's all-around strength in intercollegiate athletics. The 11th-place showing marked the 15th consecutive year that Duke has ended among the nation's top 35 programs. In 2011, Duke placed fifth, matching the school's best finish in the rankings and its 1171.50 points earned were the most in program history. In White's 10 years at Duke, the Blue Devils placed 17th (2009), 10th (2010), fifth (2011), 16th (2012), 12th (2013), ninth (2014), 20th (2015), 24th (2016), 32nd (2017) and 11th (2018) in the Directors' Cup standings.

Ninety-six Blue Devil teams ranked among the nation's top 10 teams during the past 10 seasons with 18 – men's basketball (2009, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2015, 2017, 2018), field hockey (2016, 2018), men's lacrosse (2010, 2013, 2014, 2018), women's golf (2012, 2015) and women's tennis (2009, 2010, 2014) – reaching No. 1. In all, 167 Blue Devil teams advanced to NCAA postseason competition during White's Duke tenure. In 2017-18, Duke claimed two ACC championships in men's fencing and women's golf, while women's soccer and women's tennis earned regular season titles. Individually, Duke student-athletes claimed 11 ACC Player of the Year awards including positional honors, five individual ACC championships, and five ACC Scholar Athletes of the Year awards. In 2016, Duke was the only athletic department in the nation to have a football bowl champion, a Sweet 16 appearance in men's basketball and secure a baseball NCAA postseason berth and in 2018, Duke became just one of four schools over the past decade to win a bowl game, reach the Sweet 16 in both men's and women's basketball and advance to the Super Regional round in baseball in the same season.

Individually, 335 student-athletes earned All-America, 657 All-ACC and 282 All-Region or District honors the past 10 years. During White's tenure, Duke boasts 13 NCAA individual champions in Curtis Beach (indoor track and field heptathlon in 2012 and 2014), Juliet Bottorff (outdoor track and field 10k in 2011), Virginia Elena Carta (women's golf in 2016), Mallory Cecil (women's tennis in 2009), Abby Johnston (three-meter diving in 2011), Nick McCrory (platform diving in 2010, 2011, 2013 and 2014), and Becca Ward (women's fencing, saber in 2009, 2011 and 2012).

Academically, Duke teams continued strong performances under White. In the 2017-18 academic year, 26 of 27 Blue Devil varsity teams earned grade point averages of 3.0 or better during the fall and spring semesters. Additionally, 86 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors in the fall semester, while 84 did so in the spring. Overall, a league-record 493 Blue Devil student-athletes made the latest All-ACC Honor Roll. Duke has led the conference in Honor Roll selections 30 times in the past 31 years, including the record-setting 2018 performance by its student-athletes.

Under White, Duke has continued its focus on outreach to the local community. Modeling the NCAA Student-Athlete Development program's commitment to service, learning projects and outreach, more than 600 Duke student-athletes across all sports participated in a combined effort of more than 3,000 community service hours during the 2017-18 academic year.

White's commitment to the overall mission of the university remains clear. A portion of ticket sales Blue Devil regular season home sporting events are directed annually to the Duke University Libraries and the Rubenstein-Bing Civic Student-Athlete Civic Engagement program (ACE). Per White's vision from 2011, the Duke Athletics Library Fund has generated significant unrestricted revenue for the Duke University Libraries to support teaching and research across the institution. The civic engagement program, known as ACE, was started in 2015 in a partnership with Stanford University. The foundation of the venture includes student-athletes from both Duke and Stanford working together in under-resourced communities in the United States and abroad. Through immersive three-week summer service assignments that started with 40 student-athletes from the two schools in 2016, the student-athletes had opportunities otherwise not afforded to them during the school year due to academic and athletic responsibilities.

In fall of 2012, Duke University announced the $3.25 billion Duke Forward fundraising campaign for priorities across Duke's 10 schools, Duke Medicine and a range of university programs. Included in the campaign was a $250 million goal for Duke Athletics to be divided three ways – for facility enhancements and support ($100 million), endowment income ($50 million) and operating funds ($100 million). The initial $250 million goal was exceeded by the Duke Athletics fundraising team by more than $100 million ($365 million was raised in the campaign that ended June 30, 2017). Several significant facility projects were completed, including major renovations to Brooks Field at Wallace Wade Stadium, including Blue Devil Tower and the Davis Family Kicking Field at the Brooks Practice Facility, a grand entrance and entertainment space to the front of iconic Cameron Indoor Stadium (Rubenstein Pavilion), and the Scott Family Athletics Performance Center that now houses several of Duke Athletics' administrative units, as well as new strength and conditioning and sports medicine areas, a ticket office and team merchandise store.

White, who holds a Ph.D. in education, has taught graduate-level classes since 1982 and currently teaches a sports business course in Duke's Fuqua School of Business as part of Duke's MBA program.

In August 2003, SI.com (the Sports Illustrated web site) listed White, then at Notre Dame, third in its rankings of the most powerful people in college football. In January 2004, The Sporting News listed him in its Power 100 as third among five names in the "front office" category (and the lone college athletics director among the 100).

White has served on numerous NCAA committees, including the NCAA Council, formerly the association's highest governing body. In 2012, White was among a select group of college and professional administrators asked to serve on the Expert Advisory Board for the Knight Commission. Moreover, he was the secretary of NCAA Football, a non-profit corporation acting as the "collective voice to promote college football." For several years, he was a member of the Advocates for Athletic Equity Board of Directors (formerly BCA) and a representative with the football Bowl Championship Series. In addition, he previously was an ex-officio member of the Sugar Bowl Committee during his tenure at Tulane, was a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee while at Arizona State, and also worked closely with the Fiesta Bowl during his stay in Tempe.

Before becoming an administrator, White served as head track and field coach at Southeast Missouri State and assistant cross country and track and field coach at Central Michigan. He began his coaching career at Gulf High School in New Port Richey, Fla., coaching cross country and track and assisting in football and wrestling.

White earned his Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University in 1983 with an emphasis on higher education administration. In 1985, he completed postdoctoral work at Harvard University's Institute for Educational Management. He earned his master's degree in athletics administration from Central Michigan University in 1976 and his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1972 from St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., where he also competed as a sprinter. Additionally, White was recognized with honorary degrees from Loras College (2012), Notre Dame (2008, along with his wife), the United States Sports Academy (2007) and St. Joseph's College (2001). White is also a Notre Dame Honorary Monogram Club Member.

White and his wife, Jane, a former college track and field coach, have five children and 13 grandchildren.

Duke Upsets No. 3 North Carolina

On Jan. 25, 1995, the Blue Devils registered a 74-72 victory over third-ranked North Carolina. The win marked the first time Duke had knocked off a top-three ranked Tar Heel squad.

In the victory, Allison Day hit the game-winner as time expired. Day took an inbounds pass from Jen Scanlon, wheeled and shot from the left baseline as the clock hit one second. By the time the ball had bounced five times on the rim, the clock had expired and 5,000 fans were waiting anxiously to see if it would drop through the net. It did, and the Blue Devils ended a 32-game winning streak by the defending national champion Tar Heels.

Alana Beard
2001-04

On Jan. 24, 2004, Alana Beard became the first women's basketball player at Duke to have her jersey retired.

In attendance along with Alana were her parents LeRoy and Marie Beard.

Over her career, Beard was the 2002-03 and 2003-04 National Player of the Year, a three-time ACC Player of the Year, three-time Kodak All-America, three-time Associated Press All-America, four-time All-ACC Defensive selection and we could go on and on...

Beard left Duke scoring an amazing 2,687 points, which is more than any women's player in Duke history. For her career, Beard registered averages of 19.8 points, 5.8 rebounds, 3.7 assists, 3.0 steals and hit 52.7 percent of her field goals.

Over her four years, she was selected ACC Player of the Week an ACC-record 18 times, which is 11 more than any other player in the history of the ACC. Beard was also the first player in ACC history to be named ACC Player of the Year for three straight years.

Lindsey Harding
2003-07

When Lindsey Harding arrived at Duke, no Blue Devil had ever had the honor of a retired jersey. She went on to watch Alana Beard's jersey be hung in the rafters in 2004 and wanted to have hers next to Beard's one day.

This dream became a reality on Jan. 20, 2008, as Harding's jersey was raised among the other great Duke Basketball players at halftime of the N.C. State game.

In attendance along with Harding was her father, Michael Harding, her mom Lillian Andrews and her stepmom Carlotta Harding.

Over her career, Harding scored 1,298 points, posted a school-record 579 assists, 565 rebounds and 261 steals.

Harding, who is from Houston, Texas, became only the second Duke player (Alana Beard) and sixth ACC player in league history to notch over 1,000 points, 500 assists, 500 rebounds and 250 steals over their career.

As a senior, Harding earned the Naismith Award and ESPN.com National Player of the Year, while also taking home the inaugural Defensive Player of the Year award from the WBCA. A first team All-America as a senior, Harding also won the Nancy Lieberman Award as the nation's top point guard, won the ACC Player of the Year, ACC Defensive Player of the Year and earned the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award.

Elizabeth Williams
2012-15

After coming in as a nation's No. 1 recruit, Elizabeth Williams didn't disappoint over her four years with the Blue Devils.

On Dec. 29, 2016, Williams had her jersey retired and in attendance with her was her parents Dr. Alex & Margaret Williams, brother (Mark) and sister (Victoria).

Williams, Duke's first four-time Associated Press All-America and only the eighth NCAA player to earn those honors each of her four years, earned the 2015 WBCA National Defensive Player of the Year.

She became the first ACC player in history to register over 1,900 points, 1,000 rebounds and 400 blocks and just the second Duke player to post 1,000 rebounds in a career.

Williams was the second player in ACC history to be named First Team All-ACC four straight years and was the first four-time ACC Defensive Player of the Year.

A product of Virginia Beach, Va., Williams blocked a shot in the first 91 games she appeared in at Duke, which is a Duke and ACC record and became the fourth-quickest Blue Devil to reach 1,000 points in 69 games. She was one of only six Duke players to post a triple-double.

She finished her career ranking ninth all-time in NCAA history in blocked shots with 426 and listed fifth in NCAA Tournament history with 44.
